Fruit Logistica: 'April move was right'

More than 70 per cent of main exhibitors present at Fruit Logistica 2020 are due to take part in this year's show

Kai Mangelberger, director of the world's leading fresh produce trade exhibition Fruit Logistica, says he is convinced the decision to move this year's edition to April has proved to be the right one.

"In the last two months we have received positive feedback from our exhibitors, who clearly confirmed our new dates in April," he says.

"So compared with 2020, more than 70 per cent of main exhibitors will participate in Fruit Logistica. We sense that the industry has a strong desire and need to meet in person. With all this support and commitment, Fruit Logistica will pay off for everyone."

A total of around 2,000 exhibitors from 80 countries are expected in Berlin on 5-7 April 2022.
